NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION
Washington, D.C. 20555-0001

Mr. James M. Taylor
Executive Director for operations

Dear Sir:

By way of this letter I am requesting the termination of license #45-19806-01 issued to A/Tech-Virginia, Inc. of Roanoke, VA. This corporation is no longer in existence. All the principals are deceased.

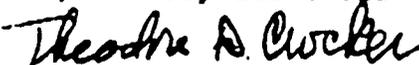

The instrument for which the license was issued is in storage in Roanoke, VA. We are endeavoring to dispose of it. It has not been used since October 1994. I am attaching two form #526 for 1995 & 1996.

This letter does not, in any way, indicate that I have funds to pay the invoices referred to in your letter of April 9, 1996.

I am 76 years old and have health problems that keep me from working. I do not own any property and do not have any borrowing capability. Between my wife and I we have a combined income of less than $1,000.00 per month and I do not have a savings account.

I have been talking to the University of Virginia and have offered to give them the gauge. They have not, as yet, indicated a willingness to accept it. There are also two companies in Roanoke that have shown a mild interest in purchasing the instrument. I will also contact Virginia Polytechnic Institute in Blacksburg, VA and offer to give them the gauge.

Respectfully Submitted
